

Tesco

Across

2 - Training undertaken away from the workplace

4 - The name of a programme which provides long-term strategy for development

6 - The framework for constructing objectives in a way that meets a business aim

7 - These meetings allow employees to discuss careers and apply for any required training

8 - The first Tesco opened in this area

Down

1 - The group of people who work in a company, industry, country

3 - The term given when employees have the opportunity to move in to different departments for a short time and acquire new skills in each

5 - The activities designed to improve the competence and ability of individuals in order to better enable an organisation to meet its objectives

Possible Answers:

North London, SMART objectives, annual reviews, job rotation, off the job training, options programme, training, workforce