

npower

Across

3 - Giving responsibility for making decisions to lower levels of staff within the organisation

4 - npower is part of this German owned company

5 - A long-term business plan of an organisation, giving a business a general direction

6 - Decisions based upon strategic policy decisions, affecting shorter term issues within the organisation

7 - An approach to production that seeks to minimise waste and inefficiency

8 - Companies supply to other companies and not to the general public

Down

1 - A structure that has a number of levels and a chain of command by which decisions are made

2 - The process of making a choice between two or more alternatives

Possible Answers:

RWE, business to business, decision making, empowerment, hierarchical, lean production, strategy, tactical