

Portakabin

Across

- 1 - A Japanese term used to mean continuous improvement
- 3 - A production method that produces goods to order
- 5 - A device, word or series of words used to represent a product or a company and to distinguish them from competitors
- 7 - The time taken from receipt of order details from the customer to goods being delivered to the customer
- 8 - Basic material inputs such as grain and cocoa
- 9 - A set of rules and guidelines to help everyone understand how best to ensure high standards of environmental care
- 10 - A system that us created to manage the delivery of quality products and services by an organisation

Down

- 2 - ISO9001 and ISO14001 are these types of standards
- 4 - The type of building produced by Portakabin
- 6 - Portakabin is part of this group

Possible Answers:

Shepherd, environmental management system, international, just in time, kaizen, lead time, modular, quality management system, raw materials, trade mark